

Call for Papers

International research project to mark the 200th anniversary of
The World as Will and Representation: The New Century of Schopenhauer

This research project is financially supported by the Japan Society for Promotion of Science (JSPS, No. 17H02281) and is calling for papers focussing on the fourth international Conference, The New Century of Schopenhauer between the 22nd and 24th of February 2020, hosted by the Nihon University (College of Humanities and Sciences) in Kyoto/Japan. The project team works closely together with the Japan Schopenhauer Association. (For the program of the first and second conference, please see the following website: <http://schopenhauer.org/wwv200/>) The third international conference will be held in October 2019 as a part of an international Congress by the Schopenhauer Gesellschaft e.V. (theory of religion, religious philosophy) at the Goethe University in Frankfurt/Germany. (For this third conference there will be no call for papers (CFP) from our research project.)

Young scholars are particularly encouraged to apply. We expect papers that can broaden the horizon of Schopenhauer research.

Terms of application

Eligibility: All welcome (Past winners of the travel money can apply again, but new or previously not supported applicants will be preferred.)

Deadline: September 30th 2019 (strict deadline)

Language: German or English

Selection panel: The project team's editorial committee (double blind peer review)

Publication: The papers given at the conference will be published.

Travel Expenses: Up to two applicants selected by the panel will be supported to attend the conference with flight (economy class) and hotel.

Terms of submission of the paper

1. The paper must be related to at least one of the following topics 1-2.

1. About The World as Will and Representation
2. About the actuality of Schopenhauer's Philosophy

2. Format und Submission

(1) Please submit your paper as an e-mail attachment in MS Word DOC/DOCX or PDF format (no scanned file) with the subject "Submission to the Call for Papers" to wwv200office@schopenhauer.org

The secretariat of the research project reserves the right to request the printed version and/or the text on a data storage device (e.g., USB mass storage) by airmail if necessary.

(2) Size: A4. Side margins top: 35mm, bottom, left and right: 30mm. Font and size: Times new roman, 12 pt. (whole text). Character spacing: Normal.

Lines and pages: 30 lines per page, maximum 10 pages, or a total of 300 lines including title, text, footnotes, etc. (The paper must not exceed these limitations under any circumstances.)

(3) Please pay attention to the following points for the peer reviews.

*The name, the affiliation, the address, etc. of the applicant should be written in neither the paper nor the summary. This information should only appear in the text of the e-mail.

*If the applicant chooses to quote his own book or article, this should not be phrased like "in my book" or "in my article", but in a neutral way, similar to other books and articles.

(4) Please also submit a summary, with particular emphasis on the originality of the paper (about 300 words).

3. Evaluation criteria: Please see: <http://schopenhauer.org/wwv200/cfp/>

4. The editorial committee will evaluate all the proposals and decide which to accept for the conference. You will be informed of the outcome as soon as possible, at the latest until the 10th of November 2019. If the applicant wishes, he/she may view the points according to the abovementioned evaluation criteria. Unfortunately any hardcopies of submitted papers and materials cannot be returned.

5. If your paper is presented at the conference copyright will be retained for possible publication purposes by the research project team.

Secretariat of the Japan Schopenhauer Association
c/o Prof. Takao Ito, Soka University, 1-236, Tangimachi, Hachioji-shi, Tokyo 192- 8577, Japan
Email: wwv200office@schopenhauer.org Website: <http://schopenhauer.org/wwv200>